Up to two original works produced solely by the artist within the past two years are accepted. Each entry must have the completed entry form attached to the lower left hand corner of the back of the work. All adult works must be framed and wired for hanging.

Entry Fees

$20 for first entry; $10 for second entry

$10 for child entry

Checks Payable to: East Granby Public Library

All proceeds benefit the Library

Delivery of Art

Please note additional drop off hours in order to ensure social distancing.

All works must be hand delivered to the library during library hours Tuesday, January 19th thru Saturday January 23th.

Children's work does not need to matted or framed. All children's work will be accepted.

Pick Up of Art

Monday, March 8 - Saturday, March 13

Works cannot be removed before the end of the show.

All entries will be handled with the best possible care. Artists will be required to hold harmless the East Granby Public Library & employees from any claim of damage from any cause whatsoever, or loss of works of art submitted for the exhibition.

Juror: Emily Kathryn Johnson

Emily is a local artist who grew up in Simsbury, CT. She has been experimenting with different mediums for as long as she can remember and finally honed in on illustration and painting while studying for her Art B.A. at CCSU. Emily also has a background in education and behavioral services.

She is fortunate to combine her two passions through community involvement and working as a private art coach with young adults.

Sales

All works are for sale unless noted "NFS" (Not For Sale). No POR (Price on Request) are accepted.

A 30% commission is taken on all sales to support the event and benefit the Library. You may offer prints of original paintings entered in the show for sale. Size, type of print and price must be added to entry card.

While our show will look a little different this year, we are very excited to be able to offer a slice of normalcy during these challenging times. We will not have an opening reception but encourage patrons and visitors to come to the library from January 30th thru March 6th to see the talent of our local artists on display.
